

These are the notes from our February 7th MTAC committee meeting.

21st Century Classrooms: What will they look like?

Teacher as facilitator

Student driven instruction: What do students want to learn?

Active engagement

Hands-on learning

Inquiry based instruction

Blended curriculum (Curriculum integration)

Global instruction

Real world experiences and real world tools

Higher order thinking activities

Independent learners

More risk taking by teachers and students

Student responsibility and accountability

Communication among students

Effective time management

Thinking outside the box

Technology saturation

Accepting diversity

Cultural awareness

Teamwork and partner work

Paperless environment

Validation of information

Laptops, smartboards, headphones

Additional computers in classrooms

Creative assessments